

Questions

1. The beliefs of your community are persecuted by the government. Therefore, you would not have access to some basic civil rights such as higher education and voting. Do you disclose your beliefs when dealing with the state?

Yes	Left
No	Right
2. Do you think people from the working class should have special privileges when accessing social benefits?

Yes	Right
Yes, but only for education and health	Middle
No, they should have the same rights as other citizens	Left
3. How many people are you willing to sacrifice in order to change an oppressive political system?

None	Right
A few	Middle
As many as it takes	Left
4. Should violence be legitimised if it is in defence?

Yes	Right
No	Left
5. Leaked information about corruption in national security agencies could be used not only to inform the public, but also by terrorist groups. Do you think this information should still be released to the public?

Yes	Right
No	Left
6. Do you think voting should be compulsory for all eligible voters?

Yes	Right
No	Left
7. If you see an issue in society, would you consider writing a letter about it to the president's office?

Yes	Right
It depends on who is the president at the time	Middle
No	Left
8. Your government is involved in a war and is shutting down all opposition to it. As a result, an anti-war protest has not received a legal permit, but they are going to protest anyway.

You totally ignore it because you don't think it will be effective	Right
You go and join the protest	Middle Right
You stay home even though you support them	Middle Left
Sometimes wars are necessary	Left
9. Is it okay to censor ideas that might cause chaos during a turbulent time in society?

Yes, until the situation is settled	Right
No, censorship goes against freedom of speech	Middle
A judge should decide if it will create chaos or not	Left
10. Should the citizens of a country be accountable for their government's policy?

Yes, for all of the decisions	Right
It depends on which policy	Middle
No	Left
11. The bus is full and you are very tired; someone suggests you sit next to them. You happily accept and then they whisper to you that they are glad that you took the seat and not an immigrant.

You sit there silently	Right
You leave the seat without saying a word	Middle
You start to oppose their opinion	Left
12. Is it necessary to preserve national heritage?

Yes, it determines who we are as a nation	Right
It shouldn't be the first priority—only if there are enough resources	Middle
It is not necessary anymore; we are all one global society	Left
13. A person is being racist towards an immigrant on the bus.

You leave the bus as soon as possible	Right
You interfere	Middle Right
You start recording the scene as evidence of his behaviour for social media	Middle Left
You ignore the whole situation	Left
14. Who do you think should be eligible to vote in an election?

Only the citizens of the country	Right
The citizens and residents of the country	Middle
Anyone who lives in the country	Left
15. Is it important to participate in a national event, whether it is to raise a flag or join a march?

Yes	Right
No	Left

16. Should politicians use violence against their people to prevent greater violence?
Yes, sometimes it is necessary Right
No, they should never be allowed to use violence against their people Middle
It should be analysed and decided by a court of justice Left
17. Is it acceptable to use propaganda for a "good" agenda?
Yes, only for a "good" agenda Right
Not at all Middle
It is acceptable to use propaganda for any kind of agenda Left
18. There is a war happening, or going to happen soon, in your region. You have the possibility to leave.
You stay and fight Right
You continue living in the region as long as possible Middle
You leave as soon as possible Left
19. In an election:
You participate, making a choice between the lesser of two evils Right
You boycott the election when there is no good choice Left
20. When talking about your own country:
You mostly talk about the good stuff Right
You mostly talk about the problems Middle
What you would talk about most depends on whether you are talking with a foreigner or a fellow citizen Left
21. You can hear your neighbours fighting violently in their home.
You call the police Right
You knock on the door and interfere Middle
You ignore the whole situation because you think it is not your business Left
22. For a member of a society:
It is important to follow the news and be aware of what is happening in the world Right
It is only important to follow the news regarding our country and community Middle
It is important to ignore the news and continue your personal life Left
23. Do you think some public spaces such as libraries or train stations should be available for homeless people to sleep in at night?
Yes Right
No Left
24. Military service:
Should be mandatory for all young people but with some exceptions Right
Should be mandatory for all young people but only during a war Middle
Should never be mandatory Left
25. You won a lottery for summer vacation in a beautiful destination which is founded on stolen land. Will you go?
Yes, anytime Right
It depends Middle
No Left
26. When a country is in a state of emergency, should international human rights organisations get involved without invitation?
Yes Right
No Left
27. As an immigrant, is it necessary to engage in the new country's socio-political debates?
Yes Right
No Left
28. Your one-year-old son finds a skirt and really likes it. He asks you if he can wear it to a birthday party. Do you let him?
Yes Right
No Left
29. You see an illegal immigrant. Do you report them?
Yes Right
No Left